

Annex No.5 to the contract

Evaluation questionnaire

for the participants of the Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange Programme Welcome to Poland

Projects selected in the call for proposals in 2018.

1. Name of the Applicant

.....

2. Title of the Project

.....

3. Application number:

.....

4. Please indicate which types of activities (out of the following) were implemented as part of the project.

	a) training support for teaching, scientific and administrative staff regarding the admission of students and staff from abroad
	b) activities related to the Applicant's organisational preparation for serving foreign students
	c) developing activities related to internationalisation "at home"
	d) activities in shaping the attitudes of openness and tolerance in the academic environment and the social environment of the Applicant
	e) organisation of a place dedicated for serving students and staff, the so-called Welcome Centre.

5. If in question 3, point a), for each of the areas of competence indicated below, please assess to what extent the trainings implemented as part of the project strengthened the competences of employees in a given area or indicate that a given area of competences was not covered in training.

If in question 3 answer a) was not indicated, please go to question No. 7

area of competence	Training within the project did not include the competences of employees in a given area	Training within the project included the competences of employees in a given area and:
		they did not significantly affect the level of competencies of employees in a given area	slightly affected the level of competencies of employees in a given area	clearly strengthened the competences of employees in a given area	very significantly strengthened the competences of employees in a given area management intercultural communication language analytical

IT
Other, what?

Justification

.....
.....

6. If in question 3, answer a) was indicated, please indicate the number of training participants in particular areas of competence, divided into teaching and research staff and administrative staff

area of competence	number of training participants in a given area
	teaching and research staff	administrative staff	total management
intercultural communication language analytical
IT
Other, what?

7. If in answer to question 3 more than one type of action was indicated, please assess, the actions of which kind contributed the most to increasing the applicant's institutional capacity in the scope of servicing students, PhD students and academic staff from abroad.

Please indicate one type of activity:

Justification

.....
.....

8. How do you evaluate the NAWA support provided to the university at the application stage and during the project implementation?

a) evaluation of NAWA support at the application stage

Definitely negative	Rather negative	Difficult to say	Rather positive	Definitely positive

Justification

.....

a) evaluation of NAWA support at the project implementation stage

Definitely negative	Rather negative	Difficult to say	Rather positive	Definitely positive

Justification

.....

9. Would you like to suggest any modifications or improvements to the programme?

In terms of:

a) the procedure of applying

.....

b) procedures for the evaluation and selection of applications

.....

c) cataloguing of eligible costs

.....

d) the rules for making payments

.....

e) other areas of the programme

.....

10. Would the Applicant be willing to re-implement the project as part of the Welcome to Poland Programme?

	Yes
	No

Justification

.....
.....

11. At the end, please make a general evaluation of the completed project.

To what extent did the project increase the institutional capacity of the Applicant in the scope of servicing students, PhD students and academic staff from abroad?

the project has not significantly increase institutional capacity of the Applicant	the project has slightly increased institutional capacity of the Applicant	the project has clearly increased institutional capacity of the Applicant	the project has very significantly increased institutional capacity of the Applicant

Justification

.....
.....